FOOD:

Manna to update food products list with current labels/images and prices. Over 25 products including tuna are available to use in your digital models and on-site. See list of food that has each item available, pricing, dimensions & visuals for each label type to aid in your digital and at-home/in-office design. You may use food items not on the list, though utilizing food from Manna's most-need items list is encouraged. Manna's current most-needed items include canned fruit in 100% juice, canned chicken and tuna, and canned vegetables (all types as well as mixed).

SPONSORSHIP FORMS:

We have sponsorship forms available that show each level of giving ($1,000, $800, $600, $400 & $200), number of meals that correspond to the amount of giving and the types of advertising each sponsor will receive for making their donation. Checks will be made payable to each firm and then the firm/team will either make payment to Manna Food Bank directly, or coordinate with AIA for a combined food purchase, whichever the Chapter(s) prefers.

THINGS TO NOTE:

- Register at www.aianwfl.com and see rules for more information.
- Any group/individual can participate from any area.
- Build area limits are 10'x10'x10'.
- Provide 3+ images (Manna to provide specs) and 1 short fly-around video (Manna to provide specs) for Manna to create mall display boards and for use in Manna and AIA marketing and PR.
- Preferred Formats:
 - IMAGES: .png or .jpeg, 300dpi or higher, horizontal and vertical options for flexibility in layout.
 - LOGOS: .png with transparent background, 300dpi or higher, horizontal and vertical options for flexibility in layout, if possible (we know some folks do not have variations of their logo).
 - VIDEOS: .mp4
- See judging guidelines for more information. No firm shall win more than one award except when the second award is the People's Choice Award and/or when there are more trophies than teams.
- If you build at-home / in-office, Manna will provide the banana boxes for team to breakdown sculpture afterwards and they will pick up when done.
- If you are solo and need a team, let Manna & AIA know by signing up at www.aianwfl.com and ask a listed team.

WE CAN DO THIS! Manna needs our help and the Pensacola community needs to see the giving, creative difference local architects and their colleagues can make!
